Explanation

The bill requires the chairpersons of the State Elections Enforcement Commission, the State Ethics Commission, and the Freedom of Information Commission to review the functions and activities of their agencies in order to assign priority for their continued funding. It requires them to report their findings to the Appropriations Committee by January 15, 2003, and annually thereafter. This will not result in additional cost to these agencies because they already report on their budgets and programs to the Appropriations Committee on an annual basis.
